John F. Ridge Superintendent

As Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Ridge has done outstanding work, displaying leadership qualities that do not bend under pressure. Even though he is in a position of authority which requires much of his time, he is always available to discuss problems with both the students and the faculty. Chelsea is fortunate in having such a capable and dedicated educator as its superintendent.

Administrative assistant, Mrs. Mary E. Sullivan, has proven herself a valuable member of the superintendent's team. Her knowledge in the areas of finances, personnel, and school services has helped everyone associated with the school system.

Mr. Margolis Headmaster

Mr. Margolis, an energetic and dedicated administrator, has served as headmaster of Chelsea High School for five years. The Class of 1972 wishes him success in the coming years, and may he strive for and achieve those goals which will continue Chelsea High's greatness.

Mrs. Helen Evans Secretary

Mrs. B. Claire Forbes Secretary

Mr. Brown Master

Mr. Brown, a fine and respected man, whose friendly attitude, warmth, and enthusiasm are shared by both student body and faculty alike, has truly demonstrated his capabilities as master of our high school.

Mr. Pucko Junior Master

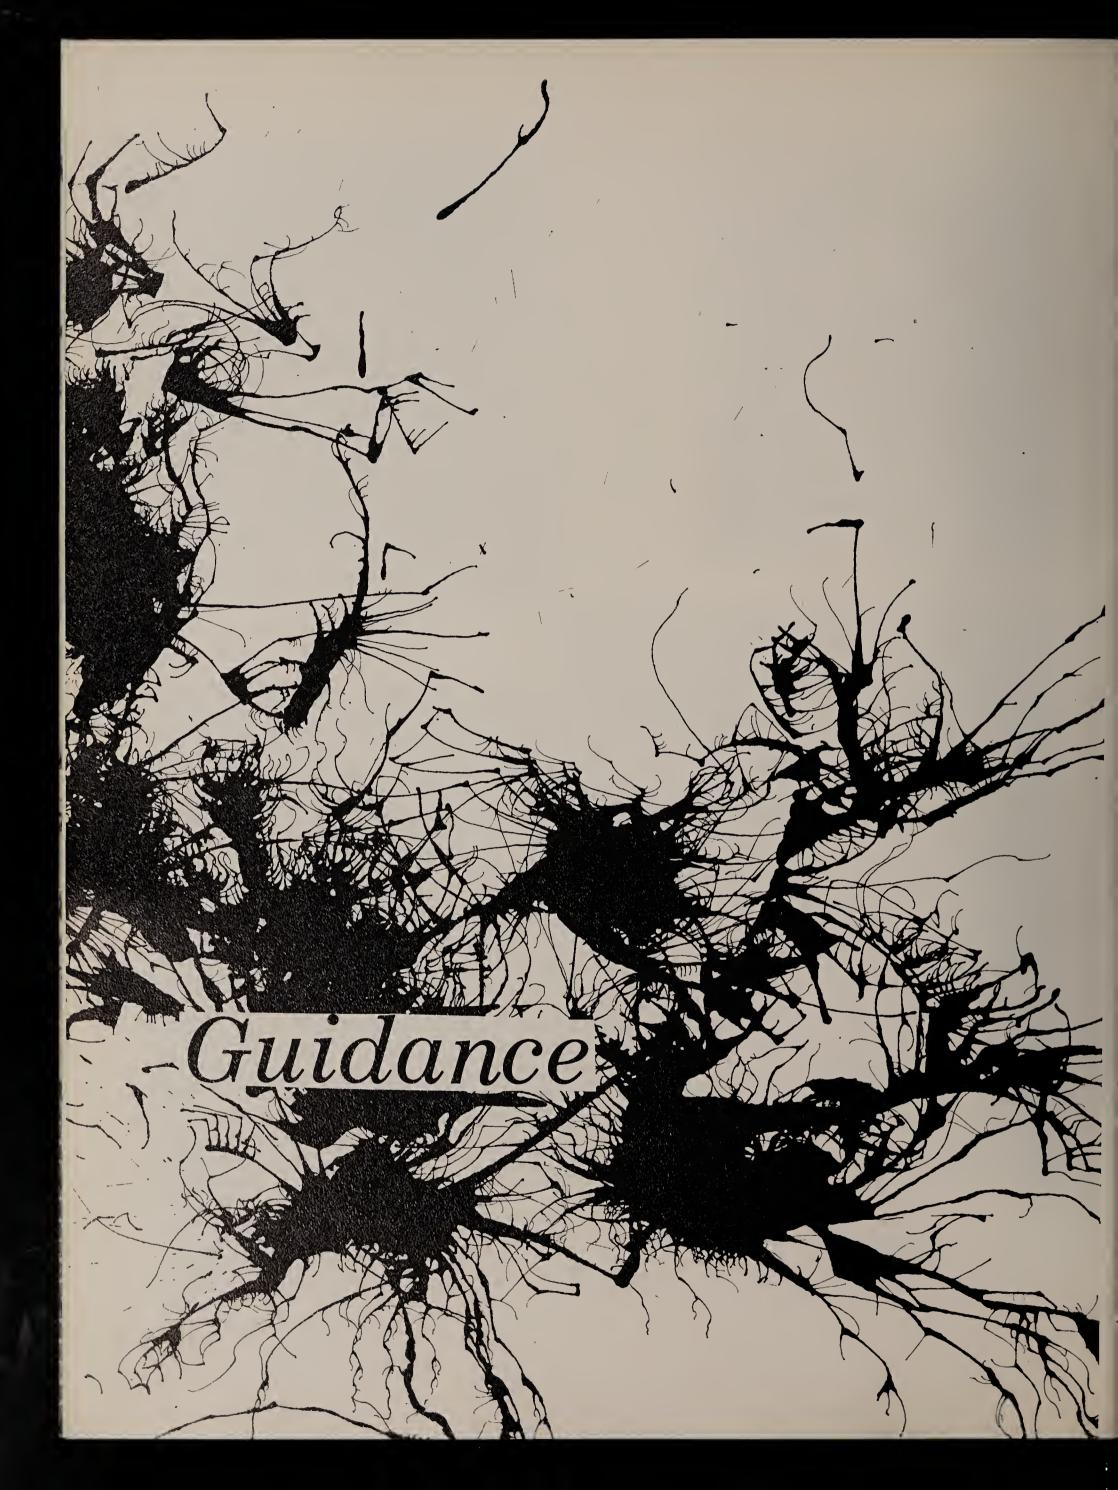

Mr. Apruzzese Junior Master

Alone

"When I'm alone" — the words tripped off his tongue As though to be alone were nothing strange. "When I was young," he said; "when I was young . . . "

I thought of age, and loneliness, and change.
I thought how strange we grow when we're alone,
And how unlike the selves that meet and talk,
And blow the candles out, and say goodnight.
Alone . . . The word is life endured and known.
It is the stillness where our spirit walks
And all but inmost faith is overthrown.

Siegfried Sassoon

Yesterday,
All my troubles
seemed so far away;
Now it looks as though
they're here to stay.
Oh, I believe in yesterday.
Paul McCartney

Our intellectual and active powers increase with our affection.

Emerson

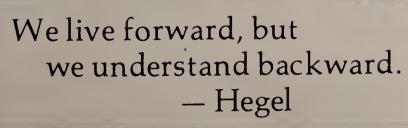

You've got to love life to have life, And you've got to have life to love life. Thornton Wilder

How many roads must a man walk down, before they call him a man?
How many seas must a white dove sail before she sleeps in the sand?

How many years can a mountain exist before it is washed to the sea? How many years can some people exist before they're allowed to be free? Dylan

Athletics

Abraham Garnick

Helping us all to look like Miss and Mr. America, and even our real selves, are the members of the Physical Education Department.

At first there's lots of aches and pains and even an occasional view of our toes, but with some first aid and exhortations we slowly improve the shape of things.

Constance Pike

Beverly Corwin

Jack Rotman

Auto Driving

John Manning

All traffic accidents are serious, costly, and usually tragic. People are killed every day, many are injured and the money or economic loss from damages is so great that it staggers the imagination. No one thinks he personally can be involved in an accident until it happens. Realize that you can be involved, at any time, unless you obey the rules.

C. H. S. Football Season 1971-72

Hey Lucifer, what was that you were saying about the footballteam? Yeah, too bad Tech beat us, but wasn't Breau's touchdown something else?

Yeah, they should acredited his helment with the interception. Aww-w-w.

Hey, is it true that everyone was calling the Medford game the Chelsea Massacre? That Cuniff is some kind of football player, huh Lucifer? Too bad he doesn't live in Chelsea. Hey, pass that goatskin bag down this way!

Lucifer wants to know if it's water, he's thirsty.

Yeah, it's water, Lucifer, it's water!

Hey, I didn't see the Revere and Somerville games — what were the scores?

Don't ask! Don't ask!

I thought we were supposed to beat Somerville.

Hey, those Northy Quincy cheerleaders were all right, huh? Their football team wasn't bad either. Hey Lucifer! Go easy with that goatskin bag!

Against Malden we scored, didn't we?

Yeah, 8 points, trouble was they scored more points.

You're not giving Chelsea enough credit, they were good in the second half!

Yeah, but Malden won.

Yeah, but even the Chelsea Record said the team had more spirit.

Spirits?

No, spirit!

Hey Lucifer, pretty good water in that bag, huh?

Quincy did all right against the Devils.

So did everybody else we played.

Yeah, but we scored 16 points — the best we did all season!

Hey, any truth to the rumor that they subbed the Pop Warner kids during the second half of the Quincy game?

Boy, everybody's a critic when the team loses, right Lucifer?

The English game was the biggest disappointment to me. I made a bet we'd win. So what happened? We got bombed!

This doesn't really seem like the Thanksgiving game.

Naw, but the crowd's pretty big.

I really think Chelsea's up for this game.

Hey! Will ya look at Chelsea handling that ball! We just might score the first touchdown! C'mon Chelsea!

Aw! Everett's got the ball now.

Don't lose hope, it's only 8 to 0. Keep the faith, Chelsea High!

Hey, get me a cup of coffee — I wanna watch the half-time show. It sure is cold today, huh Lucifer?

Well, I guess we can forget about this game.

Aw, shaddup! Chelsea's got the whole second half to score.

Don't count on it.

Brother, that Everett coach is merciless! Why doesn't he take out the first team? Why won't he at least let Chelsea get one lousy touchdown?

Hey! The goatskin bag is empty!

Yeah and I bet I know where most of it went, cause Lucifer looks kinda sick.

The game's over, do ya wanna do it?

Sure. One, two, three . . . ,

"Just wait till next year!"

Hey, what was that guy Lucifer doing with a pitchfork?

You're worried about the pitchfork — what about those horns that were sticking outta his red cap?

C o u

Kneeling: Robert Lambright, Daniel McKay, Paul Eaves, Richard De Paulo, Roland Jennex, John Rogendorf, Standing: Coach Barry Dwyer, Robert DeStefano, Tony Taraskiewicz, Jay Freedman, John Manning, Stephen DePaulo.

Captain Richard DePaulo, Coach Barry Dwyer.

While walking the streets of Chelsea one day I saw bright red uniforms just approaching, and then zooming past me. I wondered what they could have been — roadrunners on a course of destruction? When a straggler went by, I realized with relief that it had been Chelsea's cross-country team.

These fine, fleet-footed, fast-flying fellows were led through the 1971 season by Captain Richard DePaulo. The other members were: Senior Chris Athas; Juniors — Daniel McKay, John Manning, Tony Taraskiewicz, Paul Eaves, and Robert Lambright; Sophomores — Steve DePaulo, Roland Jennex, Robert DeStephano and Jay L. Freedman. J. Barry Dwyer did well in his initial year of coaching with two victories.

Cross Country has been plagued by the reputation it has gained of not being a spectator sport. Herewith are suggestions for adding color to the sport. The harriers on the opposing teams could all stand together and perform the "Teaberry Shuffle" to open the meet.

Cheerleaders could be stationed at different points of the running distance and cheer their boys on to victory. Bands could be entertaining the fans at the finish line. When the winner came into sight, the band could swing into "The Impossible Dream." With the approach of the other runners they could play "Didn't We Almost Make It This Time?" A laurel wreath could be placed upon the winner's noble brow as he paraded around in glory. Such goings-on would give the cross-country team as much of a circus atmosphere as is present in all other spectator sports, and with this its much earned recognition.

Hockey

Hockey is perhaps the fastest sport in the world. There is never a dull moment. This year's C.H.S. Hockey team proved this once again. Whenever they took the ice, excitement reigned supreme. Whether it was one of Dan O'Brien's length of the ice rushes or Jim Bagley's hard slap shot, the Devils were an exciting bunch to watch. The Devils played hard and hit harder. Many an opposing player knows not to put his head down playing against Chelsea. This whole season was just . . . just . . . well just exciting.

Basketball

Co-Captains Eric Shuman, Tony Taraskiewicz, Coach Paul Drob.

In sports there is always that one intangible that cannot be seen. Pride is the key word when speaking about the basketball team. Although outsized in every game, the Red Devils never failed to put up a tough struggle. Their spirit and enthusiasm could not be dampened. The boys have nothing to be ashamed of and everything to be proud of. Many oppoing coaches had to sweat to the final gun against this proud bunch of young men.

Girls Basketball

Led by diminutive Captain Lori Bradley, our girls' basketball team made a fine showing. The spirit and enthusiasm of Coach Beverly Corwin's team gained the admiration of all their fans. Seniors Elaine Beggelman, Cathy Rosenfield, Audrey LeBlanc, Patty Sheinker, Denise Mahon, and Paula Smokler always had their eyes on the basket. The girls really knew how to mix fun with competition.

 $\frac{B}{a}$ e b Led by Co-Captains Joel Palladino and Bob Breau, this year's C. H. S. team was one of the most feared in the GBL. They had the right balance of pitching and hitting to be one of the top teams in the league. Base hits rattled all over Meritt Park as opposing pitchers dreaded facing the potent attack of Coach Joe Bevere's Red Devils. There was a new spirit and optimism among all the wearers of the Red and Black.

The Tree of Life

I wonder if other people can see
That one's lifetime is a tree —
And each event that gladdens or dismays
Is itself a life or death.

And each event has a branch of its own
Thus, the more branches you have,
The fuller has been your one human life
The richer has been your soul.

The tree still remains standing, tall and proud,
After your lifetime has passed
So that future
generations may see
That one lifetime led by thee.

Dinner Dance

Chelsea High School seniors, clad in their finery, gathered together on February 12, 1972 for their Senior Dinner Dance which proved to be a happy and festive occasion. The celebrants enjoyed a scrumptious eight-course meal and danced to the bubbling sounds of the band. Gaiety reigned supreme during this initial event of the class' social season. The couples who frolicked the evening away will reminisce about these pleasant memories.

Student Government

Student Government Day, a tradition at Chelsea High, is an event which is eagerly awaited each year. Students play the roles of our city officials. For one day these young people attempt to run the city government in their own naive and idealistic way. Not only do these V.I.P.'s have the honor of being hosted by the city officials, but they also enjoy their new images. But woe to these students, for like Cinderella they must soon shed their formal garb in order to return the every day routine of high school.

"Farewell"

Diligently we toiled While in room 313. Muttering under our breath That our editors were mean.

It was here that we learned About picture cropping. But our lay-out staff Opted for picture chopping.

Finally, we leave these duties
With a tear in eye
As we bid farewell
To dear, old Chelsea High.
